Mindset: The New Psychology Of Trading Success: Losers Are Born And Winners Are Made (How To Grow Small Account Book 1)

Synopsis

Traders get stuck at predictable points in their journey to trading success. Despite years of training and effort, something holds them back from the success they know is possible. They want and need the fruits of trading success. They can feel the urgency of it. But, week after week (month after month), it stays out of their grasp. And they remain marginal traders. This is normal, for practically every trader gets struck here. The question is for how long. When the trader finally recognizes that he or she is the problem in their trading and decides to do something about it (rather than keep delaying), this is when things can change. The lack of trading success is not a hidden character flaw. Rather it is rooted in the biological commandments that compel us to seek certainty and control even when confronted again and again by the lack of certainty and control over outcome in the world of trading. Do you want to learn how to adapt your brain and mind so that it stays disciplined, focused, and poised when engaged with a world that cannot be known for sure?
